

What possible reason can you have to want to limit XM. How can you justify such an action in a free society?